To Make Mischiefs.

Keep your eye on your neighbors. Take care of them. Do not let them stir without watching.

They may do something wrong, if you do. To be sure, you never knew them to do anything very bad; but it may be on your account they have not. Perhaps, if it had not been for your kind care, they might have disgraced themselves a long time ago. Therefore, do not relax any effort to keep them where they ought to be. Never mind your own business—that will take care of itself. There is a man passing along—he is looking over the fence—he is suspicious of him; perhaps he contemplates stealing some of these dark nights; there is no knowing what queer fancies he may have got in his head. If you find any symptoms of any one passing out of the path of duty, tell every one else what you see, and be particular to see a great many. It is good way to circulate such things, though it may not benefit yourself or any one else particularly. Do keep something going. Silence is a dreadful thing. Though it is said there was silence in Heaven for the space of half an hour, do not let any such thing occur on earth—it would be too much for this mundane sphere.

If, after all your watchful care, you cannot see anything out of the way in any one, you may be sure it is not because they have not done anything bad; perhaps, in an unguarded moment, you lost sight of them. Throw out hints that they are no better than they should be; that you should not wonder if the people found out what they were, after awhile—then they may not carry their heads so high. Keep it going, and some one may take the hint and begin to help you along, after awhile; then there will be music, and everything will work to a charm.

THEN AND NOW.—An old-fashioned woman remarks with pathetic retrospectiveness: "I can remember when eight yards of print, and ten and twelve hours' work, without a sewing machine, would make a dress, which required only a pretty collar and a black silk apron and a brooch of arrange it into a very neat toilet. But that was when ladies did housework in the forenoon, dined in the middle of the day, occupied themselves in sewing in the afternoon, and had tea at six o'clock."

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.

$45,000,000 00 in Gold Invested

Policies Non-Forfeitable.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED ANNUALLY

Shall I lose my money if I fail to pay up? No.

Can I travel or reside when and where I choose? Yes; anywhere upon the globe, without written permit or the payment of extra premium.

The Brooklyn Life, and all other banking institutions in the world, will loan money on its Policies. Cash will be paid for all policies after the policy-holder makes two payments.

This is the only Company in the United States which gives a CASH SURRENDER value ENDORSED and WRITTEN upon each policy, in dollars and cents; setting forth the amount in GOLD COIN, which will be paid for the policy upon each payment after the second.

What is said of the Brooklyn Life CASH SURRENDER VALUE and NON-FORFEITING feature:

The Brooklyn Life is the FIRST and ONLY Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured. It has given to a life insurance policy a certain adequate "bank note" value. Such as the fruit of the savings of industry for a hallowed purpose ought to possess.—[Insurance Times, N. Y., January, 1869.]

The Brooklyn Life Insurance Company is unhesitatingly the best life company in the land.—[The Pioneer, Brighton, Iowa, February 12th, 1869.]

This plan (guaranteed surrender value) removes the sole objection existing to making an application for insurance. Each policy becomes a piece of negotiable paper, as easily transferable as a registered Government bond.—[Boston Post, Boston, Mass., January, 1869.]

A policy in the Brooklyn Life is worth so much in ready money, and can be used as collateral security in carrying on business transactions. A young man may raise money to complete his education, or to buy a stock of goods, or tools, or a farm—by insuring his life in the Brooklyn Life, and assigning his policy as contingent security.—[Dispatch, St. Louis, Missouri, January, 1869.]

All medical examinations are free.

Applications will be received and medical examinations made at the Drug Store of George Martin, on Main street, Arizona City.
